Miss Ellen Scorse has this week received a fine line of Ladies' millinery and Easter hats. All the latest Eastern styles in head dress can be found here, and ladies wishing anything in this line would do well to call before the supply is exhausted. Miss Scorse will be at the store between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m.

In last week's issue we stated that Dr. J. N. Platt, dentist, of Gallup, would make a trip to Snowflake between March 10th and 15th. Dr. Platt has decided not to go to Snowflake, on account of Dr. Flake having located there permanently, and it was not his intention to invade another man's territory.

Last week two Mexicans who were herding a band of sheep for Julius Wetzler, of Holbrook, abandoned the herd near the Mexican mine, and the entire band of 2,000 head is lost or scattered, so there is little chance of ever getting them together again. The coyotes and mountain lions have killed many, while hundreds have perished of thirst. The loss is about $5,000. The Mexicans claim they lost the herd.—Prescott Courier.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mrs. Mary E. Perry to Mr. William Armbruster, to take place at the residence of the bride, on Sunday, April 3d, at 4 o'clock. Both the contracting parties are well known here and have a host of friends. Mr. Armbruster is an old-time resident of Holbrook, and THE ARGUS joins with his numerous acquaintances in wishing him a happy voyage on this, his first venture, on the matrimonial sea.
